PUBLIC OFFER

for the grant of rights to use the presentations, materials and information of speakers at the Central Asia Warehouse Summit (CAWS) in the Republic of Uzbekistan

Tashkent 16 October 2026

Version 1

Applies to Events in the Republic of Uzbekistan starting from the Central Asia Warehouse Summit on 15 April 2027 (Hyatt Regency Tashkent) and to all subsequent Events in the Republic of Uzbekistan

The Offer is published at: https://caws.asia/uzbekistan/

IBC GLOBAL CA LLC (TIN 312748304), the organiser of the Central Asia Warehouse Summit (CAWS) in the Republic of Uzbekistan (the "Organiser"), in accordance with Article 369 of the Civil Code of the Republic of Uzbekistan, offers to enter into an agreement with any individual who speaks at the Events (the "Speaker") on the terms of this public offer (the "Offer"; the agreement concluded by its acceptance, the "Agreement"). The Organiser and the Speaker are hereinafter jointly referred to as the "Parties".

1. DEFINITIONS

1.1. "Event" means each edition of the Central Asia Warehouse Summit (CAWS) held in the Republic of Uzbekistan after the publication of the Offer, starting from the edition scheduled for 15 April 2027 in Tashkent (Hyatt Regency Tashkent), including where its date or venue is changed, and all subsequent editions of CAWS in the Republic of Uzbekistan regardless of the year and city in which they are held. The Event includes the business programme, the exhibition area and the side events that the Organiser holds, on its own or together with partners, as part of such CAWS edition, under the CAWS name in the Republic of Uzbekistan or in connection with such edition, including in online format (workshops, business breakfasts, cocktail receptions, dinners, recordings of expert interviews and podcasts, and other formats).

1.2. "Presentation" means the Speaker's oral statements made as part of the Event programme: a talk, a slide presentation, participation in a panel discussion or conversation, moderating, answers to questions from hosts and the audience, a pitch, and an expert interview recorded by the Organiser.

1.3. "Materials" means slide decks, slides, texts, talking points, tables, charts, data, photographs, videos, biographical details, logos and other materials provided by the Speaker to the Organiser or shown by the Speaker at the Event.

1.4. "Off-Stage Information" means information, figures, estimates, opinions and forecasts communicated by the Speaker to the Organiser's representatives, or in their presence, away from the stage: during breaks and lunch, in the networking areas and the exhibition area, at side events, and during preparatory meetings, calls and correspondence with the Organiser in connection with the Event.

1.5. "Information" means any information, figures, facts, estimates, opinions and forecasts contained in the Presentation, the Materials and the Off-Stage Information.

1.6. "Recordings" means audio and video recordings, photographs, verbatim records, transcripts, subtitles and other records of the Event made by the Organiser or on its instructions.

1.7. "Analytical Products" means materials of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities in any form and on any medium, distributed free of charge or for a fee, including: post-Event reports and their subsequent versions, report teasers, knowledge bases, market overviews, analytical notes, rankings and indices, presentations, articles, press releases, newsletters, social media posts, podcasts and videos, interviews and comments given to the media by representatives of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities, their appearances as speakers at other events, training materials, and materials prepared for clients of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities.

1.8. “Anonymised Form” means the use of Information without stating the Speaker’s surname, first name or position, the name of the organisation they represent, or any other details that would make it possible to identify the source unambiguously. The source’s role may be indicated in general terms, for example: “a developer”, “a bank representative”, “a market participant”.

1.9. “IBC Global CA Group Entities” means persons that control the Organiser, are controlled by it, or are under common control with it.

2. SUBJECT MATTER OF THE AGREEMENT

2.1. Under the Agreement, the Speaker:

1) transfers to the Organiser non-exclusive economic rights to use the Presentation and the Materials (a copyright agreement on the transfer of non-exclusive rights) for the uses, in the territory and for the term set out in Section 4 of the Offer;

2) grants the Organiser the right to analyse and use the Information in the manner set out in Section 5 of the Offer;

3) consents to photography, video and audio recording, to the use of their image and voice, and to the processing of their personal data in the manner set out in Section 7 of the Offer.

2.2. The Organiser is entitled, but not obliged, to use the Presentation, the Materials and the Information.

3. ACCEPTANCE OF THE OFFER AND CONCLUSION OF THE AGREEMENT

3.1. The Offer is deemed accepted when the Speaker performs any of the following actions:

1) clicks the “Submit” button in the registration form on the Event website caws.asia, including on the page https://caws.asia/uzbekistan/, with the box confirming agreement to the Offer ticked;

2) signs the participation confirmation and Offer acceptance form (Annex 1) and sends it to the Organiser, including as a scanned copy;

3) sends the Organiser written confirmation of participation in the Event as a speaker, or a message accepting the Offer (by email or via a messaging app), in reply to an invitation or letter containing the text of the Offer or a link to it;

4) provides the Organiser with Materials for use at the Event;

5) speaks at the Event.

3.2. The Agreement is deemed concluded at the moment the Speaker performs the first of the actions listed in clause 3.1 of the Offer. Performance of either of the actions listed in sub-clauses 4) and 5) of clause 3.1 of the Offer constitutes acceptance in accordance with Article 370 of the Civil Code of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The written form of the Agreement is deemed to have been complied with.

3.3. The Agreement applies to each Event in which the Speaker participates as a speaker, without the signing of any additional documents. Performance by the Speaker of any of the actions listed in clause 3.1 of the Offer in connection with a further Event constitutes acceptance of the Offer in respect of that Event. The version of the Offer in effect on the date of the first such action performed by the Speaker in connection with an Event applies to that Event.

3.4. By accepting the Offer, the Speaker confirms that they have read the terms of the Offer before acceptance and accept them in full and without reservation.

3.5. Special terms agreed by the Parties in writing, including by exchange of emails (in particular, to accommodate the internal public communications rules of the Speaker’s organisation or the status of an international organisation), as well as the terms of a separate written agreement between the Organiser and the Speaker or the organisation they represent (including a sponsorship agreement), other than the Organiser’s Public Offer for Participation in the Event, prevail over the Offer in respect of the matters expressly addressed in them.

3.6. The Offer does not apply to Presentations, Materials and Off-Stage Information relating to CAWS editions and other events held before the publication of the Offer.

3.7. If the Speaker also participates in the Event under the Organiser's Public Offer for Participation in the Event, published at https://caws.asia/uzbekistan/, the terms of this Offer prevail in respect of the Speaker's Presentation, Materials, Information, image, voice and personal data.

3.8. This Offer, published at https://caws.asia/uzbekistan/, applies to Events held in the Republic of Uzbekistan, including where the Speaker has also accepted another public offer for CAWS speakers. The IBC Global CA Group Entities use Presentations, Materials and Information relating to the Events on the basis of the rights granted to them by the Organiser under clauses 4.4 and 5.2 of the Offer.

4. RIGHT TO USE THE PRESENTATION AND THE MATERIALS

4.1. In accordance with the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. ZRU-42 of 20 July 2006 "On Copyright and Related Rights" (the "Copyright Law"), the Speaker transfers to the Organiser non-exclusive economic rights to use the Presentation and the Materials in the following ways:

1) recording (fixation) of the Presentation in any form, including audio and video recording, shorthand recording and transcription, including by means of software and artificial intelligence systems;

2) reproduction in any physical or electronic form, including recording in the memory of computers and other electronic devices and storage in electronic databases;

3) distribution of copies by any means, including by sale;

4) public display and public performance;

5) broadcasting, communication by cable and retransmission to the public;

6) making available to the public, including posting on the Internet, on websites, on social media and on video hosting platforms;

7) translation into any language;

8) adaptation: abridgement, editing, paraphrasing, summarising, abstracting, annotating, quoting, compiling excerpts, redrawing tables, charts and diagrams, and creating derivative materials based on them;

9) inclusion in composite works, collections and databases, including in Analytical Products;

10) use in the advertising and promotion of the Events, the Analytical Products and the activities of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities.

4.2. The rights are transferred for use worldwide.

4.3. The rights are transferred for the entire term of copyright in the Presentation and the Materials established by law. The Speaker may not unilaterally terminate the transferred rights, shorten their term or restrict the permitted uses. The Speaker's withdrawal of an earlier decision to make the work public (right of withdrawal) is permitted in the manner set out in Article 18 of the Copyright Law, provided that the Organiser and the persons that have obtained rights from the Organiser are compensated for the losses caused by such withdrawal, including loss of profit.

4.4. The Organiser may, without the Speaker's further consent, transfer the rights obtained under the Agreement, in whole or in part, to the IBC Global CA Group Entities, and may grant third parties, including the media, partners, distributors of the Analytical Products, and contractors of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities, the right to use the Presentation and the Materials as part of, or in connection with, the Analytical Products. The Parties expressly provide for such transfer of rights to other persons in accordance with Article 39 of the Copyright Law.

4.5. The Speaker's remuneration for the transfer of rights in respect of each of the uses listed in clause 4.1 of the Offer is non-monetary and consists of the opportunity given to the Speaker to speak at the Event before a professional audience and the mention of the Speaker and the organisation they represent in the Event programme and on the Event website. The remuneration is provided during the preparation and holding of the Event. No monetary remuneration is paid to the Speaker. The Parties acknowledge that such remuneration is sufficient. Distribution of the Analytical Products for a fee does not entitle the Speaker to any additional remuneration.

4.6. When using the Presentation and the Materials, the Organiser must state the Speaker's name and, at its discretion, their position and the name of their organisation, except where the Information is used in Anonymised Form.

4.7. In accordance with Article 18 of the Copyright Law, the Speaker consents to the Presentation and the Materials being abridged, edited and supplemented when used, to their being accompanied by illustrations, forewords, afterwords, comments and explanations, and to their translation and paraphrasing, provided that the meaning of the Speaker's statements is preserved.

4.8. The Speaker retains the right to use the Presentation and the Materials independently and to grant rights to use them to third parties.

4.9. The rights in the Recordings belong to the Organiser, and the rights in the Analytical Products belong to the Organiser or the relevant IBC Global CA Group Entity, without prejudice to the Speaker's rights in the Presentation and the Materials. The Speaker may use the Recordings only with the Organiser's written consent. At the Speaker's request, the Organiser may provide the Speaker with the recording of their Presentation for non-commercial use, with the Event credited as the source.

4.10. Acceptance of the Offer constitutes the Speaker's consent, as the person interviewed, to the use of expert interviews recorded by the Organiser for the uses listed in clause 4.1 of the Offer, in accordance with Article 16 of the Copyright Law.

5. ANALYSIS AND USE OF INFORMATION

5.1. The Speaker grants the Organiser the right to collect, record, systematise, analyse, summarise, compare with other data, verify, interpret, store and use the Information, including by means of software and artificial intelligence systems, for the preparation and distribution of Analytical Products and in the other professional activities of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities, including interviews and comments for the media, posts on social media and in the professional accounts of their executives and employees, appearances as speakers at other events, and the provision of consulting services.

5.2. The right referred to in clause 5.1 of the Offer is granted in perpetuity, worldwide, without payment of remuneration, and may not be revoked by the Speaker unilaterally. The Organiser may grant this right to the IBC Global CA Group Entities without the Speaker's further consent.

5.3. The source of the Information is stated as follows:

1) Information from the Presentation and from Materials shown at the Event is used either with the Speaker credited as the source or in Anonymised Form, at the Organiser's choice;

2) Off-Stage Information is used in Anonymised Form without the Speaker's approval. The Speaker or the organisation they represent may be named as the source of Off-Stage Information only with the Speaker's prior consent given in writing, including by email or via a messaging app.

5.4. The Speaker may designate information as not for publication: in respect of the Presentation and the Materials, by written notice to the Organiser no later than 2 (two) business days before the start of the Presentation or by an express statement when disclosing such information on stage; and in respect of Off-Stage Information, by an express statement when communicating it. The Organiser may use such information for internal analysis and, in the Analytical Products, only in Anonymised Form and in aggregated form that does not make it possible to identify the Speaker or the organisation they represent, and must not reproduce the relevant slides or excerpts of the Recordings.

5.5. Except for the information referred to in clause 5.4 of the Offer, the Information is not confidential for the purposes of the Agreement, and the Speaker may not bring any claims against the Organiser relating to the protection of such Information as a trade secret or other secret protected by law.

5.6. Conclusions, assessments and forecasts made by the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities on the basis of the Information represent their own position and do not require the Speaker's approval. In the Analytical Products, the Speaker's statements must be kept separate from the conclusions of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities, and such conclusions must not be presented as the Speaker's position.

5.7. The Organiser is not obliged to obtain the Speaker's approval of the texts of Analytical Products, interviews and publications, except in the case provided for in sub-clause 2) of clause 5.3 of the Offer.

5.8. If a statement by the Speaker is quoted inaccurately, or a statement is wrongly attributed to the Speaker, the Organiser, upon the Speaker's reasoned written request, must correct the electronic versions of the relevant materials and the subsequent versions of the Analytical Products within a reasonable time. The Organiser is not obliged to withdraw from circulation copies distributed before the request was received.

5.9. Off-stage audio and video recording, including of expert interviews, is carried out by the Organiser openly and with the Speaker's knowledge.

6. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SPEAKER

6.1. The Speaker represents and warrants that:

1) they are the author of the Presentation and the Materials or hold rights sufficient to grant the rights under the Agreement;

2) if they speak on behalf of an organisation, or if the Presentation and the Materials were created by them in the course of their employment, they have been authorised by that organisation or employer to grant the rights and consents under the Agreement;

3) the use of the Presentation, the Materials and the Information in the manner provided for in the Agreement does not infringe the rights of third parties, including copyright and related rights, trademark rights and image rights, does not breach the non-disclosure obligations of the Speaker or the organisation they represent, and does not contravene legislation on trade secrets and other secrets protected by law, on inside information or on personal data;

4) the information they communicate does not contain information whose dissemination is prohibited by law.

6.2. The Speaker must give the Organiser advance notice of any third-party items included in the Materials whose use requires attribution to the rights holder or is subject to other restrictions.

6.3. If third-party claims are brought against the Organiser or the IBC Global CA Group Entities in connection with the inaccuracy of the representations and warranties set out in clause 6.1 of the Offer, the Speaker must settle such claims on their own and at their own expense and compensate the Organiser for documented losses.

6.4. The Speaker is responsible for the accuracy and lawfulness of the information they communicate at the Event. The Organiser may, at its discretion, refrain from using any information or exclude it from the Analytical Products.

7. IMAGE, VOICE AND PERSONAL DATA

7.1. The Speaker consents to photography, video and audio recording during the Event, and to the use and distribution of their image and voice, including as part of the Recordings and the Analytical Products, in materials about the Events and in the promotion of the Events, the Analytical Products and the activities of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities, without payment of remuneration, worldwide and without limitation in time.

7.2. In accordance with the Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. ZRU-547 of 2 July 2019 "On Personal Data" (the "Personal Data Law"), the Speaker consents to the processing of their personal data on the following terms:

1) owner and operator of the personal data database: IBC GLOBAL CA LLC (TIN 312748304);

2) personal data processed: surname, first name and patronymic; position and place of work; professional biography; photographs, image and voice; contact details (telephone number, email address, social media and messaging app profiles); information contained in the Presentation, the Materials and the Off-Stage Information;

3) purposes: organising and holding the Events, communicating with the Speaker, making and using the Recordings, preparing and distributing the Analytical Products, including by the IBC Global CA Group Entities, and informing the Speaker about events and products of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities;

4) processing operations: collection, systematisation, storage, modification, supplementation, use, provision, dissemination, transfer, anonymisation and destruction, with or without the use of automated means;

5) dissemination in publicly available sources: surname, first name, position, place of work, professional biography, image and voice as part of materials about the Events, the Recordings and the Analytical Products;

6) transfer to third parties: to the IBC Global CA Group Entities for the purposes stated in sub-clause 3) of this clause, and to contractors of the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities (photo and video studios, transcription services, cloud and software service providers) to the extent necessary to achieve those purposes; the Speaker's contact details are not transferred to any other third parties;

7) cross-border transfer: permitted in connection with the use of cloud and software services and the preparation of Analytical Products, including to IBC Global CA Group Entities located outside the Republic of Uzbekistan, subject to the conditions for the cross-border transfer and processing of personal data outside the Republic of Uzbekistan established by the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan;

8) the Speaker's image and voice are not used by the Organiser to identify the Speaker and are not processed as biometric data;

9) term of consent: until the purposes of processing have been achieved.

7.3. The Speaker may withdraw consent to the processing of personal data by sending written notice to the Organiser in the manner established by the Personal Data Law. Withdrawal of consent:

1) does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before the notice was received;

2) does not oblige the Organiser or the IBC Global CA Group Entities to withdraw from circulation copies of the Recordings and the Analytical Products distributed before the notice was received;

3) does not terminate the rights granted under Sections 4 and 5 of the Offer; after the notice is received, the Presentation, the Materials and the Information are used in Anonymised Form in the Analytical Products that are created or reissued.

8. LIABILITY

8.1. For non-performance or improper performance of obligations under the Agreement, the Parties are liable in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

8.2. The Organiser's liability to the Speaker is limited to actual damage, except in cases of wilful breach.

8.3. The Organiser is not liable for the content of the Presentation and the Materials, for the interpretation of the Information by third parties, or for the independent use of the Information by Event participants and media representatives present at the Event.

8.4. The Parties are released from liability for non-performance of obligations caused by force majeure.

9. TERM, AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT

9.1. The Agreement enters into force upon acceptance and applies to each Event in which the Speaker participates as a speaker. The rights and consents granted under Sections 4, 5 and 7 of the Offer remain in effect for the terms specified in clauses 4.3, 5.2, 7.1 and 7.2 of the Offer. The Organiser's obligations under clauses 4.6, 5.3, 5.4 and 5.6 of the Offer remain in effect for the entire period of use of the Presentation, the Materials and the Information.

9.2. Cancellation, postponement or relocation of the Event, or the Speaker's non-participation in it, does not terminate the Agreement in respect of Materials already provided and Off-Stage Information already communicated.

9.3. The Organiser may amend the Offer by publishing a new version at the address specified in the Offer. The new version does not apply to Events in respect of which acceptance took place before its publication.

9.4. Termination of the Agreement for any reason does not terminate any rights to use the Presentation, the Materials and the Information that were granted to the Organiser and the IBC Global CA Group Entities before such termination.

10. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

10.1. The Agreement is governed by the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

10.2. Disputes are resolved by negotiation. The time for responding to a written claim is 15 (fifteen) business days from the date of its receipt.

10.3. If no agreement is reached, the dispute is referred to the court at the location of the Organiser (Tashkent), unless otherwise provided by the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

11. MISCELLANEOUS

11.1. Notices and other communications having legal effect are sent to the Organiser at the email address specified in Section 12 of the Offer, and to the Speaker at the email address or messaging app account from which the Speaker sent confirmation of participation or which the Speaker specified in the acceptance form. Communications sent in this way are deemed to be in writing.

11.2. The Offer is drawn up in Russian. Translations of the Offer into other languages are for reference only; in the event of any discrepancy between the texts, the Russian text prevails.

11.3. The invalidity of any individual provision of the Agreement does not render its other provisions invalid.

11.4. Annex 1, "Participation Confirmation and Offer Acceptance Form", is an integral part of the Offer.
